Dear Fellows and Emeritus Fellows,

This is the November news update from the Collegium Ramazzini. Those reading in plain text may find links in the attached pdf version.

1. Recap Ramazzini Days 2016

We had an excellent 34th edition of Ramazzini Days with 65 Fellows, 5 external participants, and 21 spouses/guests in attendance.

-Slides from the scientific presentations may be consulted on the Collegium Ramazzini website under Ramazzini Days > past presentations.

-Fellow Colin Sosklone has kindly shared photos from the event in his personal dropbox [disclaimer: get ready for some Colin selfies!]

-Renewed congratulations to our 2016 Award recipients. Read the certificates from Richard Lemen's Irving J. Selikoff Award and Arthur L. Frank's Ramazzini Award.

2. 2016 Newly-elected Fellows and Membership Roster

After careful consideration and discussion, the Executive Council elected 8 new Fellows and 1 Honorary Fellow to the Collegium Ramazzini, 3 women and 6 men. These new members represent Canada, Germany, Italy, Japan and the United States.

-A list of new members is attached, together with the membership rosters updated as of November 2016. Please remember that these rosters are for internal use only. Changes to your own listing should be directed to Erica Tommasini.

3. Save the Date 2017

The 2017 edition of Ramazzini Days is scheduled for 26-29 October. Abstracts will be due 1 June and online conference registration will open 17 July. Ideas regarding the scientific program may be presented to Priority Topics committee co-chair Melissa McDiarmid.

4. Other announcements

The 6th International ICOH Conference on the History of Occupational and Environmental Health is co-chaired by Collegium Ramazzini Fellow Kjell Toren. It will be held in Gothenburg, Sweden 29-31 March 2017. Read more on the news page of the Collegium Ramazzini website here.

Kind regards from Bologna,

KK
